Every employee wants coupons

What would you like for Christmas from your boss? Well, a bonus, probably. But a coupon book might be, um, almost as good. Career Systems International is helping our bosses skip out on shopping for us. The company, which advises on how to motivate and retain employees, is selling a coupon book for bosses to give to their employees. See www.KeepEm.com for more examples. The books are $5. Call toll-free 1-800-577-6916.
